

NATIV WINIARSKY

EDUCATION

- Fordham University School of Law
Juris Doctor
 - New York University Stern School of Business
Bachelor of Science
-

ADMISSIONS

- New York State Courts
- Supreme Court of the United States

Nativ is a partner at Kucker & Bruh, LLP. He is a senior attorney whose legal practice is concentrated on the practice areas of complex Supreme Court of the United States and commercial landlord-tenant litigation. He has litigated countless trials, jury and non-jury before various forums throughout the state. Nativ has been in the forefront of groundbreaking law that has greatly assisted landlords throughout the city and has argued motions and has participated in multiple and various appeals in both the state and federal level. Furthermore, he has written various articles in numerous legal journals and is a regular contributor to the New York Law Journal. With an established reputation as an extremely competent and aggressive litigator, Nativ has quickly risen to prominence in the high-stakes litigation arena.